

Robert Davi

Robert Davi is an award-winning actor, screenwriter, director, producer and jazz vocalist. Robert is one of the film industry's most recognized tough guys in such movies as "The Goonies", "Licence to Kill", "Die Hard", "Showgirls", "The Iceman" and "The Expendables 3". He has also shown his comedic strength in films such as "The 4th Tenor" with Rodney Dangerfield and "The Hot Chick" produced by Rob Schneider and Adam Sandler. He has also starred on TV in hit shows like Profiler, Stargate Atlantis, Criminal Minds and CSI. With over 140 film and TV credits, he has frightened us, romanced us, made us cry and split our seams laughing.

An entertainer few can rival, he is a movie star who is now being hailed as one of the top vocalists of our day in interpreting The Great American Songbook. In October of 2011, Davi released his debut album, Davi Sings Sinatra: On the Road to Romance (produced by Grammy award-winning producer Phil Ramone) to rave reviews. Within weeks of its release, the album soared onto Billboard Magazine's Top 10 Jazz Chart taking the number 6 spot for several weeks.

In addition to his sold-out 2014 Australian Tour, Robert has appeared at The Venetian and The Orleans hotels in Las Vegas, Foxwoods Casino in Connecticut, The Thousand Oaks Civic Center in California with a 55 piece orchestra and performed for over 13,000 people at Harry Chapin Lakeside Theater in Eisenhower Park on Long Island. In April 2015, he embarks on his first European tour. Available musically self-contained with a trio, 6 piece band or full Symphony charts.

As a young adult, Davi studied voice with the greats: Samuel Margolis (famed vocal teacher at the Metropolitan Opera); Daniel Ferro of Juilliard; legendary opera star Tito Gobbi; and most recently with renowned voice-builder Gary Catona (who has trained such voices as: Whitney Houston, Sade, Brian Wilson, Lionel Richie, Shirley MacLaine, and Liza Minnelli). One of Hollywood's most recognizable "tough guys", the classically trained song stylist, Robert Davi, has returned to his first love of singing and The Great American Songbook.
